

social success knowledge abilities important many community individual meaningful everyone welcoming openness inclusion education understanding participate equality share thoughtful diversity supportive environment values

Special Education Parent Forum: Pursuing a Specialized School Placement

Thursday, September 26 • 7 p.m.
at The J

1035 Newfield Avenue, Stamford, CT
Snacks and Drinks provided

Please join us for a unique opportunity to interact with experienced professionals in the special education field.

Special Education Law Attorney Lawrence Berliner, moderator, will focus on your child's special education rights. He will guide parents whose child is struggling in school - to find appropriate educational solutions and placements. Schools will be represented by key personnel who will highlight the benefits of their school's individualized programs. There will be break-out sessions with schools so that parents can obtain more information and find out how the school could best fit the needs of their child.

Attorney Lawrence Berliner: From identifying issues to navigating the special education law process, Attorney Lawrence Berliner has passionately devoted 36 years to focusing his law practice representing children, families and adults.

Eagle Hill School: Clay Kaufman, Head of School and Sue Rappaport, Assistant Director of Admissions and Placement, Greenwich, CT. Eagle Hill School is a co-ed day and 5-day boarding school for students ages 5-15 with language-based learning differences including Dyslexia, Dyscalculia, Dysgraphia, Auditory Processing Disorder, Executive Function Disorder, and ADHD.

Pinnacle School: Dr. Alisa Dror, Head of School and Sunan Jones, Director of Admissions, Stamford, CT. The Pinnacle School enables students in grades 2-12 with language-based learning differences to thrive through small class sizes, individualized academic programming, active problem-solving and relationship building.

Winston Preparatory School: Beth Sugerman, Head of School and Michelle Rolfe, Director of Admissions, Norwalk, CT, Winston Preparatory School represents students in grades 4-12, with learning differences such as dyslexia, nonverbal learning disabilities and executive function difficulties.

Please RSVP to Liza Fahey at 203.487.0946 if you would like to attend.

Stamford JCC • 1035 Newfield Avenue, Stamford, CT 06905
203.322.7900 • www.stamfordjcc.org